

WOMEN'S Leadership CURRICULUM

WOMEN LEADING WOMEN

A Nine Session Series for Women

Women Leading Women offers women leaders a powerful opportunity to explore areas of personal and professional growth. The series allows women to forge a strong network of colleagues from all levels of the organization. Together with a skilled group coach, participants identify what is limiting them from attaining their leadership goals.

What Other Women Leaders Are Saying

"Your incredibly insightful and gentle way of helping me unlock my potential, tap back into what I most care about, and open up to dreams and think big...all of this is a pure gift."

– Dr. Susan L. Secker, Provost, Seattle University

"I recently was part of reorganization discussions with two other directors. As a result of the development I received in Women Leading Women, I worked to be less guarded. I spoke my opinions openly. Many of my ideas were adopted and I feel clear and satisfied with the outcome. In fact, my influence was profound and I stepped up to it. The series has worked it's magic."

– Carol from Puget Sound Energy
